FOR PRESIDENT IN 1888,

JAMES G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.

Subject to the decision of the Republican National Convention.

"We always have the American flag above us and not below us."—James G. Blaine.

BLAINE THE FAVORITE.Indications of His Popularity Among the People

NEW YORK, September 19.—A correspondent of the Tribune says that at the recent meeting of the American Pomological Society in Boston a majority of the delegates, representing between twenty-five and thirty States, were Republicans, and of those all but three favored Blaine's re-nomination. Two were for Sherman and one for Lincoln.

A Washington dispatch to the Tribune quotes a veteran Democratic politician just back from a tour West as saying: "I found indications of considerable strength in the American movement in Nevada and California, where the anti-Chinese sentiment is all-powerful. Blaine seems to be about the only man in either of the great parties whose name excites any enthusiasm, and the only man who can draw votes from the opposite party."

The State Fair.

The Enterprise says: The annual Fair of the Nevada State Agricultural Society commences Wednesday at Reno, and will be continued through next week. The weather promises well, and the chances in that respect are very favorable. The exhibit of cattle and fine stock horses it is already known will be far better than ever before, many new stalls and sheds having been constructed in response to extra calls therefor. The racecourse has been placed in the very best condition possible, and some of the best racing stock of this State, as well as of California, will compete for valuable prizes. There will also be ladies' equestrian tournaments, wild Pinto Indian pony racing, chariot racing, and several very lively bicycle races for valuable prizes. The Virginia and Truckee Railroad Company has put the fare down to a mere nominal sum, $2 for the round trip between Virginia and Reno, and everybody can afford to go and enjoy themselves and win lots of money on Nevada stock, betting on the races. They will also see quite a number of noted flyers from California, which they can bet on if they choose.

As to the agricultural department, the exhibit cannot fail to be fine in the way of grain and vegetables, but in the matter of fruit the exhibit can hardly equal that of last year, judging from the failure in this section, caused by the late frost, which destroyed nearly all the apples and peaches along the range. Ross Lewers, the famous orchardist of Washoe Valley, for instance, informs us that his apple crop failed entirely, for the second time in twenty years—that, however, would be considered a very good average in Maine, Massachusetts or Oregon.

The showing of domestic and industrial products promises to be better than ever before, for it should be understood that our sturdy Nevada husbandmen and wives and daughters are all the time progressing in home science, domestic art and whatever makes home life happy and worth living. Naturally, as it should be, the State Fair will be patronized by strong delegations from all parts of the State.

Mrs. Ford of Lundy.

SANTA CRUZ, September 17.—Mrs. M. A. E. Shearer, of this city, was the telegraph operator at Lundy, Mono county, in 1882, when the mysterious Mrs. Ford whose eccentricities regarding the abduction of her children on a steamer from New York and who is attracting much attention, kept a hotel there. She says Mrs. Ford was a kind-hearted woman, and when talking takes short breaths and wrings her hands. She came to Lundy and started a hotel in a tent and subsequently built a hotel, giving a mortgage to one Abbott for money loaned. After a time Abbott foreclosed the mortgage, which deprived Mrs. Ford of the hotel. She walked 23 miles through the snow to Bodie to consult a lawyer in an effort to recover possession of the hotel, but in vain. She suffered much mental worry in consequence, which soon developed into marked eccentricities. Shortly afterward she left Lundy, which, as a mining camp, had begun to flatten out. No one there knew where she went, and she was not heard of until in connection with the alleged abduction of the children.

THE SNUB DIRECT.

Mrs. Cleveland Insults Governor Foraker and Wife.

NEW YORK, September 19.—Replying to the denials of the statement that the President did not return the salute of Governor Foraker in the parade on Friday, at Philadelphia, and that Mrs. Cleveland refused to notice the Governor and his wife at the Academy reception on the same evening, the Tribune correspondent reiterates the statement and says: General Bushnell, who saw the affair, thus states it: "I was with the Governor at the time. He said, 'good evening, Mr. President,' at the same time extending his hand. The President took it and replied, 'Good evening, Governor.' To Mrs. Foraker the President made some remark of an agreeable character, shook Mrs. Foraker's hand and they passed on to Mrs. Cleveland. She deliberately turned away from both of them and gave her hand to the persons coming up behind." Governor Foraker fully confirmed what General Bushnell said, adding that the intention of Mrs. Cleveland to administer an emphatic snub to himself and wife was evident.

THE FAIR.

A Big Exhibit—Fine Horses and Cattle—The Pavilion Crowded—Four Running Races To-Morrow

The State Fair will commence today and the outlook is highly favorable for a splendid season. Every stall at the track is taken, and the exhibit of horses and cattle will be the largest ever witnessed in the State. There is not an inch of space left in the big Pavilion, and the display there will be grand. The races to-day are as follows:

1. Introductory—Three-quarter dash, for District horses; Theo. Winters enters b. g. Alcatraz; M. P. Whalen enters b. g. Panama; J. M. Pearson enters ch. m. Lady B.; Theo. Winters enters ch. s. Rivers.
2. Running—Three-eighths mile dash, District horses; 2-year olds; E. L. Hubbard enters s. f. Lady Kent; M. T. Walters enters b. c. Al Farrow.
3. Half-mile dash: Samuel Gowen enters s. h. Lookout; Ed Nelson enters s. h. Pat; J. Hilton enters s. g. Steeply Dick.
4. Mile and an eighth dash: M. T. Walters enters b. m. Mollie McShane; Ed Nelson enters b. m. Katie; M. P. Whalen enters b. g. Panama; Theo. Winters enters b. g. Alcatraz.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. fab 21-sw 6-ly

BEATS THE LOUISIANA LOTTERY.—For the next sixty days all those who purchase one dollar's worth of groceries at Havenor's Cash Store will receive a ticket in a drawing for a fine gold watch. This is certainly a liberal proposition and all groceries sold at this establishment are fresh and of the best quality, and are disposed of at the lowest retail price. All goods are warranted and if not as represented the purchase price will be refunded. Go and take your chances in the watch.

SEATING RINK.—Skating every afternoon from 2 to 5, and every evening from 7 to 10 o'clock in Kimball's Hall. Saturday afternoon for ladies only.

THE FAIR GROUNDS.—W. J. Marsh, of Churchill county, is domiciled on the Fair grounds with his band of thoroughbred short horn cattle. The Vail Bros., have their display of thirty head well arranged. E. C. Hardy, superintendent of the Oasis ranch, Elko county, arrived on the ground, Monday evening, with eleven head of Norman stallions, and others are arriving continually.
